PROQUOTE OFFERS CONSOLIDATED VIEW

Proquote International, the London Stock Exchange's real-time market data and trading terminal, now offers an amalgamated order book, allowing customers to view the Best Bid and Offer (BBO) price for a stock across multiple trading platforms.

Presented on a single screen, the consolidated view display function, available on the latest version of Proquote International, provides customers with BBO prices from all of Europe's leading exchanges, including Borsa Italiana, Deutsche Börse, London Stock Exchange and OMX Nordic, as well as MTFs such as Chi-X and Turquoise

In total, Proquote provides information from over 160 sources, offering customers access to everything from real-time data from exchanges and MTFs around the globe, to historic data from OTC reporting venues such as Markit BOAT, as well as news from a host of providers, including Dow Jones. Further trading platforms are expected to be added to Proquote International in response to customer demand.

A key benefit for customers is that Proquote International is tailor-made, providing customers with only the data from venues they want to see, streamlining their data view and reducing costs.
